According to local government officials, at least 3 people were killed and 35 others were injured in the first incident in Rostaq district early in the morning.

The officials further added the incident took place after a passenger bus veered off from the road and crashed.

Provincial governor spokesman, Sanatullah Temori confirmed the incident and said women and children were among those killed, injured in the incident.

Temori further added that the health condition of a number of injured passengers is critical.

He said at least two people were killed and another one was injured following a separate incident in Taloqan city early in the morning.

Temori blamed the drivers of the two vehicles for fast and reckless driving which resulted in two deadly road accidents.
