Suicide attack in Logar leaves 9 dead, nearly 20 others injured

November 1, 2014

At least six members of the Afghan national security forces lost their lives following a suicide attack in central Logar province.

The incident took place in Azra district on Saturday afternoon, leaving at least six police and 3 Afghan national army soldiers martyred.

According to local security officials, at least 20 others, including civilians were also injured following the attack.

In the meantime, Gen. Zahir Azimi, spokesman for the Ministry of Defense (MoD) said at least four Afghan army soldiers were martyred and three others were injured following the attack.

Gen. Azimi further added that the Afghan Local Police (ALP) forces also suffered casualties.

He said at least 15 civilians, including women and children were also injured.
