3 members of Afghan border police killed in Kandahar

December 1, 2014

According to local authorities in southern Kandahar province, at least members of the border protection police forces were killed following gunmen attack in this province.

The officials further added that the incident took place in Spin Boldak district on Monday afternoon.

Provincial governor spokesman Samim Khpolwak confirmed the incident and said the target of the gunmen was a commander of the border protection police forces.

Khpolwak further added that the police commander escaped the attack unhurt but his security guards suffered casualties following the attack.

No group including the Taliban militants has so far claimed responsibility behind the incident.

Kandahar is among the volatile provinces in southern Afghanistan where anti-government armed militant groups are actively operating in a number of its districts and often carry out insurgency activities.
