Raw' hands in Balochistan

Imran Jamali

9/4/2009

On July 20, a private TV channel in its programme showed a suicide bomber confessing working for the Indian RAW to create unrest in Pakistan. The bomber was arrested from Dera Bugti after he got injured as a result of explosion in a house. He disclosed that "Brahamdag Bugti is the actual ring leader of the terrorists; Indian officials meet Brahamdag regularly; the terrorists are being trained in the Afghan training camps; Karazai had been provided protection and stay in Balochistan during his years of exile, and now in return he is providing Brahamdag Bugti the status of state guest in Afghanistan; innocent people are being forcibly transported to Kabul; a large sum is being provided to the commanders who launch terrorists and suicide bombers; and the innocent youth have been brainwashed for suicide bombing in Pakistan, particularly against the security forces. Indian RAW is operating in Balochistan and FATA in collaboration with newly established Afghan intelligence agency RAAM (earlier name KHAD). For this purpose Afghanistan has made two detachments in Riasat 25 and 33. Both the establishments are being fed by RAW for spreading violence and creating internal security threat inside Pakistan. The Afghan government has provided shelter to Brahamdag Bugti. Indian RAW and Afghan RAAM have developed their deep relationship with each other. RAW has recently restructured KHAD giving it a name of Hindu god RAAM. It is imparting training to RAAM for breeding terrorists. Ahmad Wali Karzai, the brother of Hamid Karzai, has been accused of drug trafficking and RAW is covertly supporting him. Ever since the US NATO presence in Afghanistan, the drugs trade has soared all time high. The annual UN drugs report says the US-driven anti-narcotics policies had failed to make any significant dent in the trade, forcing a rethink. The reasons behind were that some of the Taliban elements, CIA, RAW and RAAM were generating money by exporting drugs. The funds generated by Indian and Afghan intelligence agencies are being used for storming terrorism in Pakistan. Reliable resources said Baitullah Mehsud was being funded by RAW for carrying out sabotage activities in Pakistan. The chiefs of Indian and Afghan intelligence agencies - V M Sharma and Amarullah Saleh - held a number of meetings in Kabul and New Delhi in order to implement their nefarious agendas. Few meetings had also been attended by top bosses of Mossad and CIA too. In a recent meeting they showed satisfaction over their covert operations in the region and decided to expand their loop-up up to China and Russia. Targeting Pakistan, China and Russia is obvious since these nuclear powers can challenge and create hurdle in the trail of their master's great game. Some weeks ago Barahamdag reportedly met Amarullah Saleh and asked for additional money to undertake sabotage activities in Pakistan. He was promised a handsome amount and Commander Raziq Achakzai of Spin Boldak was made instrumental. Funds and explosives have been supplied by a man namely Abdul Sattar. A number of Afghan officials are facilitating Indian agents in crossing the border. Earlier this year, two border police personnel and one political figure were arrested while crossing the border without documents. Spin Boldak is said to be the main hub of anti-Pakistan activities and the town is being used as a launching pad. RAW-RAAM used to providing weapons via Bajaur, Dir, Pewchar (ex-headquarters for Fazlullah). Premier Gillani handed over these proofs to his Indian counterpart in Sharm el-Sheikh and provided pictures of Brahamdag and other terrorists showing them meeting with Indian agents in Afghanistan as well as in India. This was the proof of India's involvement in recruiting, training, financing and arming terrorists being infiltrated into Pakistan. The links have been established through investigations that have proved the involvement of Indians in the attacks like that of on the Sri Lankan cricket team in Lahore, attack on Manawan police centre, etc, which jolted even the Indian lobby in Washington. Pakistan should also ask Afghanistan to stop interfering in our internal affairs. Kabul should be pursued to hand over criminals like Brahamdag back to Pakistan. The world community needs to be mobilized for putting pressure on Karzai to immediately close down the Indian consulates and training camps in Afghanistan. Secondly there is a need for the federal government to look into the Balochistan matters not the RAW way but also see the other side of the picture. The people's dismay and dissatisfaction over the successive governments' performance in Quetta as well as in Islamabad is because of the bigwigs' ignorance about the ground realities. Unless they solve the issues like social disparity, educational, health, economic, literacy, employment, equal distribution of resources, equitable treatment to the people of this province, discriminatory attitude on the part of Centre, royalty and NFC Awards etc the problems cannot be solved. Indian involvement comes through our own inefficiency and insincerity.
