

Press-Release

The „International Coordination of Revolutionary Parties and Organizations“ (ICOR) invites you to a press conference:

October 16th 2010, 15:30 h, in the Max-Schmeling-Halle, Berlin, Falkplatz 1

At a time when international cooperations and imperialist governments cooperate intensively and globally, in order to shift the devastating burden of the worldwide economic and financial crisis on to the mass of the population all over the world, for the first time in many decades revolutionary parties and organizations of manifold currents united in a global organization, to cooperate in practice. The member organizations represent significant parties, organizations and mass movements for a socialist alternative from four continents.

The newly elected ICC invites you to a presentation of the conception, structure and the next plans of the fascinating project and is at your disposal for your questions.

Stefan Engel - Germany

Main Coordinator

Sanjay Singhvi - India

Deputy Main Coordinator